THE CRY OF THE SOUTH.

A moan comes from the South—
A low, half stifled wail—
Victims of war, oppression, drouth,
Murmur, "We faint, we fail."

The maids are hollow-eyed,
The matrons weak and wan,
And energy, and hope, and pride
Have left the heart of man.

Helpless as Israel's host
In Syrian wilds, unfed,
E'en in their slumber, famine-tossed,
They wildly mutter, "Bread!"

Brothers, your plight we see;
Sisters, we hear your moan
You come to us for bread; shall we,
For answer, give a stone?

We poured at Ireland's feet
An avalanche of corn;
Shall we the nearer claim forget
Of our own race, forlorn?

Our barns and cribs run o'er,
The increase God has given;
Share we with them—or nevermore
Look in the face of Heaven.

Vile prejudice, avaunt!
Are starving men our foes?
On women, ravenous and gaunt,
Shall faction's talons close?

Alas! in this sad hour,
It shows its demon spite,
And raises high the rod of power,
The prostrate still to smite.

Our brethren's limbs it gyves,
As kindred's claim they plead,
And with a whip of serpents drives
Whom leniency might lead.

It gives as conquerers give—
"Eat and be thankful, slave;"
Why should the helot wish to live?
There's freedom in the grave.

Bankrupt in heart and purse,
For help a people cries;
And faction, as a crowning curse,
With Martial Law replies.

Urgent Appeals for Bread.

Letters from Gen. Geo. H. Thomas, Hon. John A. Bingham, Gov. Orr, of S. C., Gov. Patton, of Ala., and others.

Those Who Doubt Should Read Carefully.

Letter from the Southwestern Relief Commission.

Southwestern Relief Commission, Louisville, April 20, 1867.

Messrs. J. P. Barr & Co., Daily Post:

Gentlemen:—Absence from the city is the cause of my not paying attention to your valued favors until now. We indeed congratulate you upon the efforts you have made in this great charity, and commend you and the other good donors on the success that has attended your exertions. That any opposition is made and reflections cast regarding this work on the intended recipients of its charity is a wonder and regret. We look at it only in the light of christianity and humanity. There is not anything else in it. We appeal from no other stand point and we do not believe there now exists any cause in this great country that has greater claims upon the whole country, than the feeding of the starving women and children of our own land. We have cheerfully responded, in former years, to calls from abroad, and that, too, without questioning or grumbling, and oh! shame, that any should now in the least prevent or attempt to paralyze the efforts to feed our own people. The appeals for bread are as urgent as ever. Do what you can.

The Treasurer will give the matter attention that you wrote about making draft on you for amount of contributions.

Yours, very respectfully,
SAMUEL A. MILLER,
Secretary and General Agent.

LETTER OF MAJ. GEN. GEO. H. THOMAS.

Louisville, Ky., March 29.

Mr. Carter H. Harrison, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:—I received your favor of the 17th inst., this morning, for which I am much obliged, as it will enable me to point out a locality in Georgia and Alabama where the people on both sides of the question at present dividing the country are in extreme want of provisions, and many who have means to do so will be compelled to quit their homes, unless they can get subsistence enough to enable them to make crops this year.

The people of Carroll, Harrison, Polk, Paulding, Campbell, Corveta, and Heard Counties, Georgia, and Randolph, Calhoun, and Cherokee Counties, Alabama, are represented to me as not having provisions to last them until May next; and great numbers who have the means to move, will be compelled to do so, unless they can procure provisions from abroad. All classes of the citizens are alike destitute, the rich as well as the poor; and both must starve if they remain in the country, unless provisions are sent to them. The rich are perfectly willing to purchase, if any one will send them provisions, and wait for them to gather in their crops before demanding payment.

By aiding these people I know you will be doing good service in relieving distress, which is common throughout the south, and will also be giving encouragement to people who will appreciate the relief afforded them in their time of need.

I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
GEORGE H. THOMAS.

P. S.—Corn and bacon are articles most essential, as the people absolutely need something to enable them to remain at home and cultivate the crops.

SPEECH OF HON. JNO. A. BINGHAM, H. R.

[Extracts.]

It is enough for me to know that within the jurisdiction of the common Government of this country there are men, women and children who are suffering from famine, lifting up their haggard faces, stretching forth their skinny fingers, and asking leave to eat of the crumbs that fall from your well supplied tables. "Tell it not in Gath; publish it not in the streets of Askelon," that the American Congress, having the control of such resources as never before acknowledged the sway of any other Government, will permit sixty thousand of their countrymen to perish for bread within the limits of their own jurisdiction.

Sir, I think no man living in the nineteenth century, in the serene light of Christian revelation, can question the propriety of feeding the poor, or can stop to haggle or inquire whether the man famishing at his door has been his friend or his enemy.

He will not forget the Divine teaching of our Master, whose intense holiness shed majesty over the manger and the straw; who by his own lips commands us to love our enemies, and by the tongue of his apostle enjoins, "If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink."

Sir, you may apply in the day of war the iron rule of war, and say that the innocent and unoffending in the beleagured city shall perish with the guilty; but when war's dread alarm has ended, as happily it has with us, when the broken battallions of rebellion have surrendered to the victorious legions of the Republic, let no man stand within the forum of the people and utter the horrid blasphemy that you shall not have regard for the famishing poor, that you will not give a cup of water to him that is ready to perish, in the name of our Master, that you shall not even relieve the wants of those who have never offended against the laws. The unoffending little children are not enemies of your country or of mine; the crime of treason is not upon their souls. Surely, surely they are not to be denied your care. The great French patriot Victor Hugo, banished from the Empire for his love of liberty, gathered little children around him in his exile at Guernsey, and fed them from his own table, uttering the judgment of our common humanity in its best estate: "Little children are at least innocent, for God wills it so."

Mr. Chairman, if their widows and children are not already sufficiently provided for, in God's name provide for them abundantly. I am ready to vote any additional needed relief to them. I have voted hitherto, I know, ten-fold the supplies to them that are proposed in this resolution. If gentlemen will take the pains to make the computation it will be found that this joint resolution provides only to the amount of a fraction over eighteen dollars per capita to save sixty thousand people from destitution during the space of five months.

LETTER FROM GOV. ORR, OF S. C.

[Extract.]

Executive Department, Columbia, S. C., March 25, '67.

To subsist our population until the 1st of July will require, in my opinion, the importation of not less than four hundred thousand bushels of corn. I am sure that I do not exaggerate the necessities of the poor, white and colored, when I say that at least one hundred thousand bushels will be required for gratuitous distribution among them. Those who were formerly wealthy, and had the means of relieving this class, are in most cases themselves reduced to poverty and overwhelmed by past indebtedness. Hence, comparatively few persons in this State are now able to extend charity to their suffering neighbors.

To give some idea of the scarcity of grain, I went on a visit to the District of Abbeville during the present week. I found that the concurrent testimony of all intelligent gentlemen was that there was not an excess of three weeks' supply of corn for the population in the district. This was one of the wealthiest and best cotton crop growing districts in the State, but the cotton crop has been unusually short there as well as elsewhere in South Carolina. Some of the planters and farmers, from the proceeds of the last year's crop, are able to supply themselves with grain, but many have neither corn nor the means to purchase. This too, was one of the districts not ravaged by either of the armies during the war.

In portions of the districts of Barnwell, Edgefield, Orangeburg, Lexington, Richland, Fairfield, Chester, Union, York, Anderson, Abbeville, Lancaster, Kershaw, Sumter, Clarendon, Chesterfield, Marlboro', Willliamsburg and Horry, the destitution is very great, and it is difficult to determine in which one of them the wants are most pressing.

Any aid rendered will be most gratefully received, and will be faithfully dispensed among those whose necessities are greatest.

I am very truly, dear sir, your obedient servant, JAMES L. ORR,
Governor of South Carolina.

Executive Dep't, State of Alabama, Montgomery, March 19, '67.

Rev. Henry A. Boardman, D. D.

My Dear Sir:—The late disastrous civil war left the people of Alabama in greatly changed circumstances and condition. Thousands of our good people, before the war, in comfortable and independent circumstances were reduced to extreme poverty and want. By reliable statistics it has been ascertained, the State lost on the field of battle and otherwise, not less than forty thousand of her best young and middle-aged men; besides fully half that number were maimed and disabled for life, many of whom have since died. We estimate that fully one third of the sixty thousand were married men, and that they left an average of three helpless children, making in the aggregate twenty thousand widows and sixty thousand orphans, three fourths of whom are objects of charity. Besides the loss of husbands and fathers, these families were stripped by the armies of everything necessary to maintain life. To provide the means of living for this large population of dependent destitute people has been no little part of the labors and responsibilities of this Department. In aid of the Governor, he has associated with him, a State Commissioner whose duty it is to look after and provide for the destitute. That enterprising officer is now in this chamber, just returned from a journey through the mountain districts of north Alabama, and reports very great destitution and suffering from want of food. We can supply bread alone, and not one third of the actual necessities of the poor is supplied.

The National Government and Charitable Associations in neighboring States and cities are doing much to aid us; but all this is entirely inadequate to the necessities of the destitute.

I frequently receive from abroad liberal contributions of corn and money, which with the aid of the Commissioners, I use in such a way as to do the largest amount of good to the greatest number.

Should your good people be pleased to make a free will offering for purposes mentioned, I promise you the same shall be so used as to give great relief to the suffering poor. Any contributions from you will be very thankfully acknowledged.

Very truly yours,
R. M. PATTON,
Governor of Ala.

REV. A. F. DICKSON, D. D.

(Orangeburg, S. C.)

[EXTRACT.]

But, it may be asked, how have these helpless and penniless persons held out so long? How have they been supported until now? Some of them have only of late sunk down into the slough. But the proper answer is, because of the generosity and unfearing faith of neighbors only a little less poor. Why I can produce the man who, last year, when he had but twelve bushels of corn for his own large family, and no assurance of a farther supply, fed it out to his poorer neighbors at the rate of a quart per day.

"There is an uncomplaining meekness, a modest silence, an unwillingness to crowd one another out of help—a deferring to each other's needs, that affects me profoundly.

"I have dwelt on the facts here because I know them. But one has reached me to-day, from a distance, that may be relied on. Rev. J. N. Craig, Lancaster C. H., lately said that he could name fifty-two families within his personal knowledge who had no means of living.

"Things are not yet at their worst. There are yet four months unto the harvest—more than four to any harvest that will materially relieve the poor. If we have not large help from abroad, it seems certain that many must perish.

REV. J. O. LINDSAY.

[Abbeville District.]

There is a large proportion of widows with helpless children, many of whom are without food except when furnished by kind neighbors who themselves are much straitened to supply their own families. When I was at home a few weeks since, I was appealed to repeatedly by families for a few bushels of corn, who assured me that without it they could not get through the coming spring. All working animals are much reduced, and in bad condition to cultivate the crop of the present year.

Famine is thus knocking at the door of many households unused to want. Stripped and peeled by the desolation of war, and famishing under the power of a mysterious but ever righteous Providence, our people stretch their hands to more favored regions for help. They ask for bread; they do not expect luxuries or even many comforts of life; they appeal for only what will ward off the cravings of hunger.

In reference to the number of our people who are proper objects of charity I cannot give information. I think I do not exaggerate when I say that four hundred families in one district of Abbeville need help, and that five thousand bushels of corn would be for them a very meagre supply. Many of the other districts are in a condition equally deplorable, and in some the destitution is even greater.

LETTER TO JOHN O. JAMES, ESQ.

Atlanta Ga., March 25, 1867.

I am rejoiced to learn that you Philadelphians are adopting measures to relieve the suffering people of the South. Oh! if you could but see the poor famished creatures that almost hourly come to our doors, begging for cast off clothing, even for a crust of bread or anything that will assist to sustain life, it would, indeed, arouse you all to action. We who have heretofore been able to give have scarcity of money, and are forced to turn away without aid, as painful as it is. This is the grand rendezvous for that class of people within a circuit of one hundred miles or more, consequently the demand for charity is unlimited.

You can see upon the streets, almost any hour of the day, poor half-famished women perhaps with infants, with a small load of wood, drawn by one poor ox or cow, which will bring from one dollar to a dollar and a half.—They come from a distance which requires two or three days to make the trip. The proceeds are invested in corn and meat, and if they succeed in begging a little additional, can subsist their families until they return again. In this way very many of the people through the conntry have lived for months. It is a common sight to see them coming in for miles barefoot and almost naked, with their little sacks begging for corn. Men, too, are here, from all parts of the country hunting work; but not sufficient employment can be found for half of them; the only alternative is to beg. And but for the assistance from abroad hundreds would perish in our streets.

Hundreds of large families are living in tents and huts in the shrubs, entirely dependent upon charity. It is impossible for them to find work. Most of them are widows from neighboring towns, destroyed during the war.

TO THE CHARITABLE.—Should any one who reads the foregoing desire to contirbute to the relief of the sufferers in the South, they can do so by forwarding the amount they are willing to give to James P. Barr & Co., office "Daily Post," Pittsburg, Pa.—ED. GAZETTE.

IDLENESS.—Idleness is the nurse of all vices. It moves so slowly that they all overtake it. The Germans and the Italians say, proverbially, that "idleness is the devil's pillows." Some affect to excuse this hydra-headed habit by asking what harm can a person do when he does nothing? The reply is ready and plain. He who is passive in allowing decay is himself a destroyer. While standing still and refusing to help he obstructs the progress of others. We are told in Holy Writ: "By much slothfulness the building decayeth, and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through." And again it is said: "I went to the field of the slothful and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding, and lo! it was all overgrown with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down." The words of Cato, the elder, are in the proverb, "that one who does nothing learns to do evil." Idleness has been well described to be a moral leprosy, which soon eats its way into the heart and corrodes our happiness, while it undermines our health. Idleness is costly, without being a luxury. Montaigne always wound up the year's account of his expenses with the following entry: "Item—for my abominable habit of idleness, a thousand livres." We toil for leisure only to discover, when we have succeeded in our object, that leisure is a great evil. How quickly would the working class be reconciled to what they may call the hardships of compulsory occupation, if they were doomed only for a short time to the greater hardships of compulsory idleness. They would quickly find that it is much better to wear out than to rust out. The idle man is at the mercy of all the vices. The working man, on the contrary, finds a safeguard in his occupation, which leaves no time for temptations nor desire to yield to them. It was well said, by the oldest of the Greek poets, that the laborer is the sentinel of virtue.

WHAT IT MEANS.—A very common exclamation in these days, by hard working men upon hearing the amount of their taxes, is "What does it mean?"

We can tell our hard working friends, who have been voting the Abolition ticket for the past six years, what it means, in a very few sentences.

It means that you have been voting to rob yourselves, for the purpose of enriching as rapacious a set of scoundrels as ever lived.

It means that you have been helping to build up a moneyed aristocray, who by their money control the legislation of the country for their own interests.

It means that you are paying the taxes of your rich neighbors, who have their thousands invested in bonds.

It means that you have become serfs to the "loyal" lords of the Abolition party.

It means that you are paying the bill for reducing you to the level of negroes.

It means that a National debt is a National curse.

It means that unless you want your sons to lead a life of slavery, you must help to hurl from power the thieves, who, under the disguise of loyalists, are making this country a despotism, and its people slaves.

It means that you are unworthy of the name of freemen, if you longer consent to bear the burden of your bond-holding neighbors.

Compare the above with your tax receipts, and see if they do not tally.—Toledo Rec.

ONE OF HER "SWINE."—My sweet "sprig of geranium" has a fashion, when speaking of her beaux during their absence, of styling them "my swains."

Her pa heard her speak thus:

I went to see Jennie one evening, and was met at the door by the "old man."

After the customary "How do you do!" and comment on the weather, he blurted out:

"I suppose you want to see Jennie?"

I nodded affirmatively.

He then called her: and from up stairs, over the balusters, in sweetest accents she replied:

"What do you want, pa?"

"Come down at once, daughter, here's one of your swine."

Imagine my sensations, amidst her ringing laughter, after the old boy's exit.

AN ARKANSAS JOKE.—A correspondent at Napoleon, Ark., is responsible for the following joke, which is said to have transpired during the late war:

While trudging along one day all alone, a soldier met a Methodist circuit rider, and at once recognized him as such, but affected ignorance of it.

Preacher—"What command do you belong to?"

Soldier——I belong to the——Texas regiment, Van Dorn's army. What army do yon belong to?

P.——(Very solemnly)—"I belong to the Lord!"

S.—"My friend, youv'e got a very long way from headquarters!"

THE elder Matthews one day arrived at a forlorn country inn, and addressing a lugubrious waiter, inquired if he could have a chicken and asparagus. The mysterious serving man shook his head.

"Can I have a duck, then?"

"No, sir."

"Have you any mutton chops?"

"Not one, sir."

"Then as you have no eatables, bring me something to drink. Have you any spirits?"

"Sir, replied the man, with a profound sigh, "we are out of spirits."

"Then, in wonder's name, what have you got in the house?"

"An execution, sir!"

—A lady in the southern part of Illinois, having a few hundred dollars, concluded to try her fortune speculating in wheat. She wrote accordingly to a prominent commission house in Chicago, engaging them to act as her agents and ordering them to invest the entire sum in that treacherous staple. In a short time, contrary to all expectation, it went up to a surprising figure, and the fair speculator sold out at great advance. Shortly after she again telegraphed her agents to purchase a large amount, but they replied in the same manner that the market was very much depressed and they would not advise her to buy. For answer she repeated her order, and by the late advance in prices has peen enabled to have $40,000 placed to her credit!

ANOTHER CATTLE EPIDEMIC.—The farmers and owners of cattle in New Jersey have recently been seriously alarmed at the simultaneous appearance in various parts of the State of a new disease among their horses and mules. This disease has, in the few cases which have up to the present time occurred, invariably proved fatal, and although the symptoms are not in all instances identical, they are sufficiently alike in their general character to warrant an apprehension that they are but the beginnig of an epidemic, which may possibly create as much loss among the cattle of this section of the country as the well-known rinderpest has already caused in Europe.

WORTH KNOWING.—If people planting orchards would give strict orders to mark the north side of trees with red chalk before they are taken up, and when set out to have the tree put in the ground with its north side to the north in its natural position, a large proportion would live. Ignoring this law of nature is one cause of so many transplanted trees dying. If the north side is exposed to the south, the heat of the sun is too great for that side of the tree to bear, and therefore it dries up and decays.

"RADICAL" ENTERPRISE.—Some enterprising fellows, a few days ago, undertook to upset the corner stone of the Capitol building at Topeka, Kansas, in order to get possession of some coins deposited in it. There's genuine red-legged, jayhawking Kansas for you. It would be of very dubious policy to leave the fractional hundredth part of a dollar on the eyelids of a defunct African unwatched in that progressive region.

One of the front walls of the Lindell House, St. Louis, is still standing, and the marble of which it is built is worth $120,000; but as it is very high and liable to fall at any time, the contractors for the new hotel are in a quandary how to save the materials, as the laborers will not risk their lives on it, and to pull it down by means of ropes would break and destroy the marble.

—During his speech in Petersburg, Mr. Wilson said to the negro meeting, "I am one of you;" but whether he meant that he was a negro or a white man, or both, is left to conjecture.—Boston Post.

—Since the destruction of four thousand begging letters by Mr. George Peabody he has received about one thousand more.

Gov. Brownlow has commissioned W. Sumner, jr., a colored man, as captain in the State Guard, in Tennessee.

—The extension of our limits to the western extremity of the continent, gives the United States four hours and thirty-nine minutes more sun-light than it had before,

THE Lancaster Intelligencer warmly advocates the nomination of Hon. Geo. Sharswood as the Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge. We never knew the Intelligencer to be wrong on any subject.

IN Washington city, the number of black voters registered outnumbers the whites. Under such circumstances, there ought to be a Black Republican victory.

THE Cincinnati Commercial, one of the leading Radical papers of Ohio, has come out against Negro Suffrage. The Radicals of that State are having a beautiful family quarrel upon the Darkey question.

DEATH OF A. W. BENEDICT, ESQ.

We receive with feelings of sadness the announcement of the death of A. W. Benedict, Esq., of Huntingdon, which occurred at his residence, in that place, on Sunday last. Mr. Benedict has been Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, since the session of 1864, and, we believe, filled the same office once before. He died, we understand, of Erysipelas.

A COMPLETE VINDICATION.

As a complete and thorough vindication of the County Commissioners against all future assaults or aspersions of Radical office-seekers and their friends, we copy the following from the Bedford Inquirer of April 12th, 1867, which we ask every tax-payer to read and remember:

"The Commissioners deserve great credit for their prompt efforts to relieve the County of a debt that was growing very rapidly and distressed our tax-payers."

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD AND THE SUPREME BENCH.

It has been stated in some quarters that Judge Sharswood would not accept a nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court. We are authorized to contradict this statement, and can say that whilst the Judge does not seek the nomination, he will not decline it, if tendered him. We hope this fact will be made generally known. We repeat, what we have before said, that the nomination of Judge Sharswood will give us victory at the polls and integrity and ability upon the Bench. This is no time for clinging to favorites. We want learned and upright men to compose our Court of last resort, and it, therefore, behooves us to look well to the character of the man whom we select as our candidate.

AN ATTEMPT TO ROB THE STATE OF $800,000!

When will the unfathomable rascality of the late Legislature be sounded to its lowest depths? The Pittsburg Gazette, the principal Radical daily in Western Pennsylvania, says that an attempt was made, in that body, "to rob the Sinking Fund of 800,000," and the same paper adds, "for preventing this, the people seem to be indebted to Senator Wallace, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee." What more is wanted to damn to everlasting infamy the men who controlled the Legislature? By the admission of their own partizans, those men were robbers of the treasury and their thieving was prevented only by the vigilance of the Democrats. Will the people return such men as their representatives? That's the question.

HEGIRA OF RADICAL LEADERS!

Ex. Gov. A. G. Curtin has gone to Europe, John W. Forney is about to start thither, likewise, and Col. A. K. McClure intends making an overland trip to the Pacific. Can we survive this hegira of eminent Radicals? We hope so. But it is really too bad that these fellows will not face the music. The storm is coming and they run away. How can they be so indifferent to the fate of "the party of great moral ideas," as to leave it in the lurch in this gloomy conjuncture? They should have fought out the battle, instead of making this inglorious retreat. They cannot flee from the wrath to come. Whether beyond the Atlantic, or upon the golden shores of the Pacific, it will find out their hiding-places.

A LITTLE TOO FAST.

On the 12th of April last, the Bedford Inquirer assumed its readers that there would be "no State Tax to pay for the year 1867." We learn that, instead of this being the case, there is nearly $2,000 State Tax required from Bedford county for 1867. It is true this Tax will not, as heretofore, be assessed as such, but will be included in the assessment of County Tax. This is what might be termed "whipping the devil around the stump." It is an easy matter to dispense with the State Tax, if the sum asked for by the State, be paid out of the County levy, but according to our notion, it will make but little difference to those who foot the bill, whether they pay the $2,000 as county Tax, or State Tax. We refer to this matter only to show that the County Tax for the present year will include the State Tax.

DISCOVERY OF GREAT ELECTION FRAUDS IN PHILADELPHIA.

The Philadelphia Evening Herald announces the startling fact that it has been discovered that at the election last fall, the whole Democratic City Ticket was elected by some thousands of a majority. The Herald says there is "a terrific row going on among the Radicals of Philadelphia" and that some of them are "turning State's evidence" in regard to the frauds committed by their party. It appears that the Democrats have been deliberately counted out by the scoundrels who officiated as election officers in that city. The Herald makes the statement that "at the general election last October all the officers of the row, viz: Recorder of Deeds, Receiver of Taxes, City Commissioner, Coroner, Clerk of the Quarter Sessions, and the Prothonotary of the District Court, were elected by the Democrats, but were ciphered out by the return judges. Gen. Lyle was elected to the office of Recorder by a majority of some thousands of votes!"

CORRUPTION RECOMMENDED.

The Bedford Inquirer and many other Radical sheets denounce the late Legislature, composed largely of members of their own party, as having been the most corrupt and unprincipled body that ever assembled at Harrisburg. In fact they openly proclaim the disgrace of their own principal men, the flower of their own organization. Yet the Inquirer, after thus fully acknowledging the monstrous rottenness of its party, has the brazenness to ask the people of Bedford county to trust their county offices to its partizans! Why, if the county officials would steal in the same proportion as the Radical legislators whom the Inquirer so justly denounces, there wouldn't be one brick left upon another in the County buildings within a year from the date of the election of such officials. The Inquirer cannot ask us to trust its partizans, after telling us that "another such Legislature as the last would sink us!" Radical Commissioners and Poor Directors would hardly be an improvement upon Radical Legislators.

MORE DENUNCIATION OF THE LATE RADICAL LEGISLATURE!

It is a Trembling Culprit before the Bar of the Popular Court!

The Radical press is still hammering away at the late Legislature. The enormities committed by that body are so glaring and indecent that the Radical newspapers deem it politic to denounce rather than to extenuate them. The York Republican, Radical to the backbone, thus discourses in regard to the shameful character of the Legislature:

"We desire 'nothing to extenuate, and set down naught in malice;' and 'with charity to all,' but demanding inflexible fidelity to the people from their official representatives, we hold it to be our duty as conductor of a public journal—even though the work be voluntary and gratuitous—to set down matters just as they present themselves to our observation and judgment. The late Legislature cannot afford to be charged with more than it deserves. It is precisely in the position of the trembling culprit before the bar of the criminal court, who, being assured by the Judge that he should receive justice, replied, 'Shure, that is just what I am afraid of, your honor!'—The members were very dear at $2,560 each. The people can parody the sentimental song and say,

"Though false to trust, to pockets dear!"

MONSTROUS ROBBERY FRUSTRATED.

The Pittsburg Gazette, the leading Radical organ of Allegheny county, in a statement of the corrupt legislation at Harrisburg, thus refers to one of the bold robberies attempted at the last session, and describes the mode in which it was defeated:

"Talking, a few years ago, with a noted lobbyist at Harrisburg, he frankly confessed he and his kind relieved the Commonwealth of pretty much all the property it had worth plundering. During the past session a systematic effort has been made to gather up and carry off the fragments that remained, and this endeavor has been crowned with a large measure of success. If the accounts are true, and we think they are, the bottom of the Treasury has been cleaned out and a round deficit left. Nor is this all. An attempt was made to rob the Sinking Fund of $800,000, for preventing which the people seem to be indebted to Mr. Wallace, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee. He raised the point that by the plain words of the Constitution, the revenues derived from certain sources were pledged to the liquidation of the public indebtedness, and could not be applied to general purposes. This compelled a cutting down of the financial budget, which looked to the expenditure of $1,000,000 more than the estimated income."

The course of Mr. Wallace, in this instance, says the Erie Observer, will endear him still more strongly to the Democrats of this State, and should recommend him to the favor of men of all parties. When a man can boldly stand up in the midst of the corruption which is admitted by everybody to have prevailed at Harrisburg, and defend the interests of the people in such a manner as to draw forth an acknowledgement like the above from a political enemy, it shows that he possesses an innate sentiment of honesty such as we all hope to find in our public officials, but, alas, are too often disappointed in the expectation!

It must be a matter of gratification to our party friends, that with the many denunciations of their leaders in this State, no whisper of suspicion has ever been uttered against their character for integrity. During Mr. Clymer's long career in the Senate, with the most infamous legislative debauchery surrounding him, he preserved an unstained reputation, and amid the heat of the canvass last year, with the hundreds of charges heaped upon him, not one was coined alleging or even intimating any doubts as to his personal purity. After his retirement, Mr. Wallace became the Democratic leader, and the act above recited affords the best illustration of his fitness for the position. His honesty is freely conceded by those who would be most prompt to detect and expose even the slightest step outside of the legitimate conduct of a public official, and whatever assaults may be made upon his political course, none deny to him the loftiest attributes of a faithful, vigilant and incorruptible statesman. The time is coming when these facts will be appreciated by the people, and the men who have stood sternly by their duty, regardless of the blandishments of public thieves, or the clamors against their patriotism raised by those who sought in that way to keep their own vile deeds from being brought to light, will receive that reward which their Legislative and private merits so richly entitle them to.

PERIODICALS.

THE OLD GUARD for May, will be found to be a very interesting number. Mr. Simms's new story begins to show great dramatic power. Mr. Cooke treats us to one of his best battle pictures, in a review of "The Second Manassas." Hon. Jas. W. Wall contributes a paper on "Prussia and her Capital;" Dr. Van Evrie one on "The Problem of the Races," while the Editor discourses of the "Decline in the Popular Knowledge of Liberty." Hon. Wm. F. Samford, of Ala., contributes some interesting reminiscences of the late Bishop Soule. Paul H. Hayne, one of the most popular poets of the South, adds his name to the list of contributors. The number is rich in poetry; one piece, entitled "Virginia Fuit," and another, "Whither Away," will attract general attention. Add to these features the Book and Editor's Tables, and the present number will compare favorably with any yet issued. Single copies sent, post-paid, 25 cents; $3.00 per year; ten copies $25 00. Van Evrie, Horton & Co., Publishers, 162 Nassau street, N. Y.

THE GALAXY.—This interesting and ably conducted magazine is to be changed from a fortnightly to a monthly, the two usual fortnightly numbers to be consolidated into one. The next number which will be issued will be for June, and will appear on the 20th of May. The price per single copy will remain at 30 cents; the yearly subscription price will be reduced to $350. The GALAXY is far superior to any other literary magazine published in the United States. Subscribe for it. Address W. C. & F. P. Church, No. 39 Park Row, New York.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—We have received The Lady's Friend, for May, which is of itself worth a year's subscription. Every lady should subscribe for this excellent Monthly.

Price (with engraving) $2.50 a year; Four copies (with one engraving) $6.00. One copy of Lady's Friend and one of Saturday Evening Post (and one engraving), $4.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street Philadelphia.

EXTEMPORANEOUS MARRIAGE.—A somewhat singular matrimonial alliance occurred at Sigel, Missouri, the other day. A gentleman of that place was engaged to a young lady, the wedding day was fixed and the guests invited. A few days before the nuptials were to have been solemnized the father and brother of the bridegroom, by threats of disinheritance, persuaded him to disappoint the expectant bride and make himself invisible in the vicinity. The evening came, and at the appointed time the wedding guests collected at the house of the bride's mother, but the faithless swain did not put in an appearance. An hour had passed and the bride and her friends were overwhelmed with embarrassment and mortification. When all hope of a wedding had vanished a young gentleman of the party, being captivated with the beauty of the bride, and desirous that the company should not be disappointed, proposed, was accepted and the couple were accordingly married. The guests were astonished and delighted and the bride and groom looked happy.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. CONSUMPTION CURABLE BY DR. SCHENCK'S MEDICINES.—To cure consumption, the system must be prepared so that the lungs will heal. To accomplish this, the liver and stomach must first be cleansed and an appetite created for good wholesome food, which, by these medicines will be digested properly, and good healthy blood made; thus building up the constitution. Schenck's Mandrake Pills cleanse the stomach of all bilious or mucous accumulations; and, by using the Sea Weed Tonic in connection, the appetite is restored.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is nutritious as well as medicinal, and, by using the three remedies, all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will repel all disease. If patients will take these medicines according to directions, consumption very frequently in its last stage yields readily to their action.—Take the pills frequently, to cleanse the liver and stomach. It does not follow that because the bowels are not costive they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhœa they are necessary. The stomach must be kept healthy, and an appetite created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and allay any irritation. Then all that is required to perform a permanent cure is, to prevent taking cold. Exercise about the rooms as much as possible, eat all the richest food—fat meat, game, and, in fact, anything the appetite craves; but be particular and masticate well. 2d w

CHILDREN'S LIVES SAVED FOR 50 CENTS.—THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP.—Now, mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of Dr. Tobias' Venitian Liniment in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 19 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of croup when my liniment was used; but hundreds of cases of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for cuts, burns, headache, toothache, sore throats, swellings, mumps, colic, diarrhœa, dysentery, spasms, old sores, and pains in the back and chest. No one once tries it who is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by all druggists. SHATTERED CONSTITUTIONS RESTORED by Helmbold's Extract Buchu.

KNOW THY DESTINY.—MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a lifelike picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with the date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communication, sacredly confidential. Address in confidence, MADAME E. F. THORNTON, P. O. Box 223, Hudson, N. Y. marl,'67y1

THE GLORY OF MAN IS STRENGTH.—Therefore the nervous and debilitated should immediately use Helmbold's Extract Buchu.

IMPORTANT QUALITIES.—BRANDRETH'S PILLS so stimulate all the interior powers of the system that every poison or impurity is forced from the blood into the bowels, and thus passes off. Recent cases of sickness will often be cured by the effect of 6 or 8 Brandreth's Pills, which, when the operation is full and complete, leave the blood as free from poisonous and unhealthy matter as that of a new-born babe. In colds, inflammatory diseases, and even in cholera, their use restores to health sooner than all other remedies, because they take from the blood and bowels those matters upon which pains, cramps, and aches depend for continuance.

Captain Isaac Smith, of Sing Sing, says, thirty of Brandreth's Pills, taken according to directions, cured him of a very severe bronchial affection after other means had failed and he wishes his numerous friends to know the fact.

Brandreth's Pills, Principal Office, Brandreth House, New York. Sold also by all Druggists.—See my name on Government stamp, without which the pills are spurious. B. BRANDRETH.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH cures secret and delicate disorders in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, and free from all injurious properties.

WONDERFUL BUT TRUE.—MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulistic Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a perfect and lifelike picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can assert By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

All notices under this head must pre-paid to insure insertion:

TREASURER.

We are authorized to announce the name of JOHN A. MOWRY, of Bedford Borough, as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Democratic county nominating convention.

We are authorized to announce JOHN BOOR, of Bedford borough, as a candidate for Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Democratic county nominating convention.

COMMISSIONER.

MR. EDITOR:—Please announce Joseph Souser, of Napier township, as a candidate for Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

We are authorized to announce Henry Egolf of Napier tp., as a candidate for the office of Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

LOOKING UP.—The Holidaysburg Standard says real estate is looking up in that place. Ditto in Bedford.

A. B. CRAMER & CO.—See advertisement of this enterprising mercantile firm in this number of the GAZETTE. Call and examine their goods.

ATTORNEY TO COMMISSIONERS.—J. W. Dickerson, Esq., has been appointed Attorney to the Commissioners, vice E. F. Kerr, resigned. We fully endorse this appointment.

WOOLEN FACTORY.—J. I. Noble, of Waterside, this county, is about erecting a new Woolen Factory. The building is to be a great improvement on the old one.

MASTER'S ORATION AT DICKINSON COLLEGE.—M. A. Points, Esq., of this place, has been elected to deliver the Master's Oration at Dickinson College. Mr. Points was a member of the Class which graduated in 1864.

NEW GROCERY AND FEED STORE.—We call the attention of everybody and "the rest of mankind," to the advertisement of Jacob Bowser's New Grocery and Feed Store. Bowser knows how to advertise, and is bound to succeed.

CASSIMERES.—R. W. Berkstresser & Co., the gentlemanly Clothiers and dealers in Dry Goods, etc., have just received from the East an assortment of Cassimeres that will please everybody, and of the very best manufacture. Call and examine these goods for yourselves, at Schafer's Row, Julianna Street.

NEW FANCY AND MILLINERY STORE.—Mrs. Border & Co. have opened a new Fancy and Millinery store in the rooms lately occupied by Mrs. Carn & Co. They have a large stock of excellent goods which they will sell at low prices. Give them a call.

MORE BOROUGHS.—The towns of Woodberry and St. Clairsville were incorporated as Boroughs, at the last term of Court. There are, now, eight Boroughs in this county, viz: Bedford, Bloody Run, Schellsburg, Woodberry, St. Clairsville, Saxton, Coaldale and Rainsburg.

NEW OIL ENTERPRISE.—An oil company has been started in Monroe tp., this county, called the "Black Valley Oil Compauy," with Daniel Fletcher, Esq., as President, for the purpose of developing the Black Valley region. A well is to be sunk on the farm of Thos. Rose, Esq., and some $3,600 has already been subscribed for this purpose.

CHEAP FARM FOR SALE.—We call attention to the advertisement of C. J. McLaughlin, in this issue. The farm offered for sale by him, can be bought very low, on account of the owner having removed to another county. Persons desiring to purchase, can obtain particulars by addressing the editor of the GAZETTE.

W. M. HALL has placed into my hands some recently discovered papers of Mr. John Palmer, consisting of partially prepared claims for bounties, pensions, &c., and correspondence relating to applications forwarded. Parties desiring information concerning these matters can inquire of me, may3w1* J. T. KEAGY.

ADMITTED.—We observe among the proceedings of court last week, that, on motion of Hon. S. L. Russell, Hays Irvine, Esq., of this place, was admitted to the bar. We understand that Mr. Irvine's examination was very creditable to him. His experience, heretofore, in the Prothonotary's office, will give him a great advantage in the practice, and we bespeak for him a useful future.

IMPORTANT TO HUCKSTERS.—We notice among the bills passed by the Legislature, and approved by the Governor, one repealing the first section of the act relative to huckstering in Bedford, Cumberland, Fulton, Franklin and York Counties, which discriminates against non-residents of those counties, and compelling the Treasurers to refund to non-residents, who have licenses imposed by this act, the excess so paid over and above the licences imposed on residents.

ODD FELLOWS' THANKSGIVING.—Friday last, 26th ult., was observed by the Odd Fellows, of this county, as a day of Thanksgiving. The attendance from the various lodges throughout the county was very respectable. A procession was formed, which paraded the streets, preceded by a band of music, and after marching through the town, proceeded to the Presbyterian Church, where an address was delivered by Dr. C. N. Hickok, Dep. Grand Master. The address of Dr. Hickok, was very instructive and entertaining, and all went away highly gratified.

THE BORDER RELIEF BILL.—The following from the Fulton Republican, of last week, we endorse to the last letter:

"The bill for the relief of the sufferers along the Border by reason of the rebel invasion, &c., failed to become a law, It passed the House, but was killed in the Snate. It is only another evidence of the unmitigated meanness and selfishnes of some men—mean, because the districts which oppose it were far removel from the scene of war, and rested seure in person and property, while we, along the Border, were constantly exposed and stood as a bulwark between them and the enemy, and were liable, at almost any time for three or four years, to incursions from guerrilla bands and our substance taken from us, while our young men were absent in the army, battling alongside those from our more favored districts; selfish, because an appropriation for this purpose would make so much less in the Treasury for these fellows to appropriate to themselves in some shape or other.

We know of men who, to the extent of their ability, sustained the Government in men and means, and then, in some instances, lost all they had by the rebel guerrillas, and we ask, is it just that those who sustained the Government to their own injury should now be left to suffer by neglect of that Government?

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The following cases were disposed of at the late Quarter Sessions for this county:

Com. vs. J. C. Baker. For. and Bas. Bail for appearance at next sessions.

Same vs. Johnson Barnes. Burglary. Process waived and issued.

Same vs. James Harvey. For. and Bas. Verdict, Guilty as to the fifth count and Not Guilty as to the first four counts.

BEDFORD C UNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—Pursuant to public notice a meeting of the Bedford County Agricultural Society, was held at the Court House, on Wednesday evening, April, 24. On motion a temporary organization was effected, by calling GEO. W. WILLIAMS, Esq., of Napier, to the Chair, and the appointment of William Hartley Esq., of Bedford, as Secretary.

Mr. Hartley having been called upon to explain the object of the meeting, briefly stated that it was to make preliminary arrangements for the holding of a County Fair during the coming fall.

On motion it was resolved that an Executive Committee of nine be appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the holding of the proposed Fair, said Committee to consist of the following named persons:

Joshua Shoemaker, Bedford Bor.
Capt. T. H. Lyons, " "
Isaac D. Earnest, Bedford Tp.,
J. M. Barndollar, Bloody Run,
Asa Stuckey, Snake Spring,
Hon. G. W. Gump, Napier,
Geo. W. Diehl, Colerain,
A. H. Hull, Union,
Wm. Colvin, Schellsburg.

On motion it was resolved that a General Committee of two persons from each election district be appointed, and the following named gentlemen were appointed:

Southampton, Arch Perdew, Jason Hanks.
Union, Samuel Shafer, Francis Beard.
Woodberry, Bor., Dr. C. Oellig, G. R. Barndollar.
Woodberry M., Dan'l Barley, R. L. Replogue.
Woodberry S., Jno. S. Brumbaugh, Wm. Aaron.
Schellsburg, Jno. E. Colvin, A. J. Snively.

It was further resolved that the Executive and General Committee shall meet at the Court House, in Bedford, on the first Tuesday in June, next, to elect permanent officers and make all necessary arrangements for holding a County Fair.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

G. W. WILLIAMS, Pres't.
W. HARTLEY, Sec'y.

The Character of the Pennsylvania State Loan.—The financial security of a Commonwealth rests on the double foundation of sufficient resources and popular confidence in the willingness and ability of the State to pay its debts. Viewed from these standpoints, we must assign to the new loan lately negotiated by Pennsylvania the foremost place among all the investments of the day of reliability. When we consider the vast resources of the Keystone State, and the limited amount of her indebtedness, which, when compared with her assets, make her liabilities as a drop in a bucket, we can imagine no safer or more desirable form of permanent investment than the purchase of the bonds of the Commonwealth.

Of the many cosmetics and toilet articles now advertised, but few prove to be what they are represented. Messrs. Berger, Shutts & Co., Chemists, of Troy N. Y., are advertising extensively several articles that have proved themselves just as represented, for which they are acting as agents. We believe them to be perfectly trustworthy, and that parties using their preparations will find them fully up to recommendations given. See their advertisement in an other column of this paper.

GEARY.—The Erie Dispatch, (Republican) says:—"It is claimed for Gov. Geary that he is wise and strong in intellect. A Governor who signs a law and then asks the Legislature to repeal it because he did not know what he signed until somebody told him, as Geary did in the case of the Allegheny Valley Railroad bill, is not overloaded with brains."

—The New Castle Gazette makes this apt suggestion:

"When you hear any one bragging of his Democracy, ask him if he takes his county paper. If he don't his feathers will drop in spite of him. Try it on."

SEND FOR A CIRCULAR.
The ingredients used in compounding Mishler's Herb Bitters are not kept secret by the Proprietor. Send for a circular and you will learn the medical properties of all the articles used in its preparation; also in the manner in which they operate on the system, and much other valuable information. If you are afflicted with disease send for one of Mishler's Herb Bitters Circulars; read it carefully, profit by the hints it contains, and you will be placed on the sure road of recovery.
may11.—1y.

MISHLER'S BITTERS
WILL
CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!
Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—
1st, Scrofula.—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, its channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."
To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.
It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.
2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.
3d, Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's bitters are a sure cure for this disease.
4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

J. W. BRADLEY'S
CELEBRATED PATENT
DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING)
SKIRT.
The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SKIRT will be experienced particularly in crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring Skirt.
A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.
They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary Skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered: preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.
The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the STANDARD SKIRT of the Fashionable World!
To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz. superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for
J. W. BRADLEY'S DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.
CAUTION.—To guard against imposition, be particular to notice that Skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—☞ none others are genuine. Also notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.
For sale in all stores where first class Skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent,

VOL. V. Again Enlarged! 1867.
THE OLD GUARD,
A MONTHLY MAGAZINE,
DEVOTED TO
Literature, Science and Art, and the Political Principles of 1776 and 1787.
C. CHAUNCEY BURR, EDITOR.
The success of THE OLD GUARD has been as remarkable as it ought to be gratifying to the friends of a true American literature. It has steadily doubled its circulation each year of its publication, and its publishers have found it necessary to annually enlarge it, to meet the full expectations of its patrons, as well as to realize their own ideal of a first-class Family and Literary Magazine, combined with sound political principles.—To still farther carry out this design, The Old Guard for 1867 will be printed on new type, and enlarged sixteen additional pages, making in all nearly One Thousand Pages of reading matter yearly for the low price of three dollars! Arrangements have also been made to secure the very best literary talent of the country. We will commence in the January number a thrilling Romance, written expressly for The Old Guard, entitled,
JOSCELYN; A Tale of the Revolution;
By Wm. Gilmore Simms, Esq., of S. C.,
the peer of Cooper and Irving, taking the reader back to the birth of the American principle of government, and introducing him to the rebels of 1776. John Esten Cooke, Esq., of Virginia, author of "Surry of Eagle's Nest," &c,, &c., will furnish a series of graphic sketches, entitled "The Battles of Virginia," while our present corps of contributors, with some new ones, will continue to furnish articles, making the Magazine second to none in point of literary attraction and ability.—Politically, The Old Guard will stand in the future as in the past, faithfully guarding the Constitution as it came from the hands of Washington, without acquiescing in any of the subversions, under the title of "amendments." It will be continued upon the grand idea that "all is not lost," while virtue and intelligence remain with any portion of the people.

ASTROLOGY.
The World Astonished
AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.
She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives your name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secresy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.
Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig—
Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig;
Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair,
And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.
REPARATOR CAPILLI
For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, provided entire satisfaction is not given. Miscellaneou.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requsite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD accepts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to make any money bargains he thinks proper, in spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interference; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political, agricultural, financial, literary, etc.
3. Its Digest of the News is not, like most weeklies, a mere waste-basket of the Daily; only matters of interest and importance are chosen from the Daily, while the mass of its contents are prepared especially for the Weekly.
In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.
The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature. Published Tuesday and Friday.
The DAILY WORLD affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day.
